May 21, 1985

Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

On Tuesday, May 14, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence ordered reported H.R. 2419, the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1986. The Committee's report, H. Report No. 99-106, Part I, was filed on May 16. The Committee would appreciate your views and those of the intelligence community concerning the bill - and particularly Sections 105, 401 and 402. Your response will be most useful to the Committee if it is provided prior to any conference committee meetings concerning H.R. 2419.

For your information, it is my estimate that the bill will not be considered by the House for at least a month and perhaps longer.

A copy of the bill as amended and the Committee's report are attached.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lee H. Hamilton
Chairman
